Pack Your Bags! A Kid's Ticket to Travel at CMOM through January 16

Sponsored by  TIME WARNER CABLE

This fun-filled exhibition helps children explore and understand why people travel and how traveling can change us. It invites kids to join in the exciting adventure of five very different kinds of travel: journeying to a new home, visiting new places, taking on new challenges, joining in a celebration and taking imaginary trips to the destinations of our dreams. The many engaging ideas, activities and special artifacts in the exhibit encourage children to think about their own sense of identity and community. The exhibit is meant to enrich children's lives, broaden their cultural experience and give them a creative space in which to learn about the world. By experiencing a new home in Canada, a family reunion and a journey by train, kids become part of the fun and adventure! The exhibit is presented in English and French. It is on loan from the Canadian Children's Museum.
